

Study on Brain Imaging and Cognition in Children with Neurofibromatosis

NEEDED: Children ages 3 to 18 with a diagnosis of NF1

IRB# 49534

What:

- The objective of this study is to better understand the brain correlates of cognition in NF1
- Study includes brain imaging (MRI) and cognitive assessments

Who:

English-speaking children ages 3 to 18 with a diagnosis of NF1

Details:

For more information, contact:
Rayann Solidum (Study Coordinator)
Email: rsolidum@stanford.edu
650-497-0226

Principal Investigator
Cynthia Campen, MD